

Robert Morrow, MD

Governance Board Chair

In addition to his leadership experience, Dr. Morrow brings a wide range of diverse and practical pediatric experience to Children's Health <sup>SM</sup> Pediatric Alliance, from his residency in pediatrics at Children's Orthopedic Hospital and The University of Washington to his practice of pediatric cardiology.

In addition to a Bachelor of Business Science degree from Baylor University and a Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of Alabama at Birmingham, Dr. Morrow brings more than 26 years of experience in children's health care. His last position as Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer at Arkansas Children's Hospital honed his leadership skills—where he also continued to expand his experience in the fields of academic medicine as an Associate Dean for Children and a Professor of Pediatrics for the UAMS College of Medicine.

As its Chief Clinical Officer, Dr. Morrow serves as Children's Health's clinical spokesperson and provides medical leadership across the organization, including the organization's Physician Networks. As a member of the Executive Leadership Team, he directs strategic decision-making and long-range planning that is critical to our continued success and vision to be a world-class pediatric medical center.

As Chair of the Pediatric Alliance Board, Dr. Morrow is the principal officer of the Board of Directors. He drives the implementation of strategic objectives and coordinates all resources available through Children's Health and its partners to realize Pediatric Alliance's vision of being the leading pediatric Accountable Care Organization in the nation.
